

Compute pairwise similarities (distances) by using the Euclidean distance.

Now inspect the selected clusters by setting the variable to Type and the Subgroups to Cluster. You can do it also the other way around.

Load the zoo data set of 101 animals described by 16 attributes.

In Hierarchical Clustering, select the desired number of clusters. We suggest 4 to 6. Remember to use Ward linkage as it works best.